What are people saying about RISE?

"RISE is a unique 'Think and Do Tank' dedicated to nurturing social entrepreneurs and promoting economic development and well-being in Egypt. RISE represents an exciting model of how global talent can be harnessed to create value and disseminate evidence-based programs.

Congratulations on the official launch of RISE!"

Ichiro Kawachi

Professor of Social Epidemiology and Chair of the Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences, Harvard School of Public Health

"RISE is one of the very few entities having both an impactful strategic vision and the ability to execute it."

Youssri Helmy

General Partner at Newbury Ventures

"To be amongst the Egyptian social entrepreneurs in pursuit of their passions and commitment to serve all Egyptians is UP-rising! I am refueled and determined that as an Egyptian-American we must invest in RISE to support innovators that are committed to a better, stronger Egypt for all Egyptians."

Lobna "Luby" Ismail
